

NOMINEES FOR THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE 2019/2020

Nominee:	ANNEAR HENDERSON, Lauren
Nominated by:	self
Interest in CSSI:	As a member of the CSSI Management Committee during the years 2015 – 2018, I have been involved in an challenging period in the Society’s history. I would like to continue to contribute to the growth of the Society as I believe it is an incredibly important organisation to Palmerston North. Being involved in The Stomach since my teens has shaped my personal interests and culture in a vastly positive way and I feel being part of the Management Committee is a good way to contribute to the organisation going forward.
Skills and Experience:	Experience with health and safety, Vulnerable Children’s Act 2014, employment relations and recruitment. CSSI ManCom member 2015 – 2018.
Conflicts of Interest:	None
Other Memberships:	None
Nominee:	CARR, Felix
Nominated by:	self
Interest in CSSI:	I am a musician of many years standing and play in a number of bands which practice and perform at The Stomach, including Soda Boyz, Felix and Jack, and Marcus Hermit. Past member of the ManCom and longstanding volunteer at The Stomach.
Skills and Experience:	As a past member of the Management Committee I have a range of governance and management skills. I play a number of instruments
Conflicts of Interest:	I work at Radio Control. Radio Control purchases services and provides sponsorship to The Stomach
Other Memberships:	None
Nominee:	DRIVER, Bells
Nominated by:	Meredith MacKenzie
Interest in CSSI:	I grew up at the tummy. It set me up to work in the music industry in NZ and the UK for the next 13 years. I absolutely believe in its value in the community, especially for young people.
Skills and Experience:	Worked in the music industry in NZ and the UK for 13 years.
Conflicts of Interest:	None
Other Memberships:	Young Professionals Network - Manawatu
Nominee:	GOACHER, Callum
Nominated by:	self
Interest in CSSI:	Frequent the music scene as an attendee and as a performer
Skills and Experience:	Two years of governance and events experience at MUSA and Radio Control. Member of many committees at Massey. Experience with events and community engagement.
Conflicts of Interest:	MUSA (until November 2019)/ Radio Control volunteer

Other Memberships:	MUSA (until November 2019)
Nominee:	HUBBARD, Stuart
Nominated by:	Meredith MacKenzie
Interest in CSSI:	Longstanding Palmerston North musician and member of the Management Committee.
Skills and Experience:	Have participated in strategic planning meetings for CSSI several times. Also submitted successful funding applications on behalf of the Society, including the original DIA application. Currently a union delegate with the PSA.
Conflicts of Interest:	PNCC staff member, but not in a role associated with arts funding.
Other Memberships:	Manawatu Jazz Club (former committee member); Manawatu Mountain Bike Club
Nominee:	MACKENZIE, Meredith
Nominated by:	Stuart Hubbard
Interest in CSSI:	I enjoy a wide variety of music and am passionate about self-expression, empowerment, and the strong sense of connectivity and belonging that I have experienced through the music community in Palmerston North. I am passionate about supporting local musicians and have a keen interest in sound quality. I am a longstanding volunteer at The Stomach, having been involved since 2001. I have been voluntary accountant for ten+ years and developed the accounting software the Society uses. Since my election onto the ManCom in 2015, I have served as Treasurer.
Skills and Experience:	I have a strong interest and track record in mentoring young people, strategic planning, workshop facilitation, training, arts administration, policy development, governance, event management, and community development. I hold degrees in history and accounting. My career path has canvassed auditor, management accountant, arts advisor, student advisor, policy and compliance, strategy management, academic governance and quality assurance. I am an experienced event organiser, treasurer, and accountant in the voluntary sector.
Conflicts of Interest:	None
Other Memberships:	NZ Labour Party, Tertiary Education Union.
Nominee:	PALENSKI, Stephen
Nominated by:	self
Interest in CSSI:	As a musician and budding sound engineer I have been an active participant and volunteer at The Stomach. I work as a locksmith and live in Palmerston North. Elected onto the Management Committee in 2017, I am enjoying growing my governance skills and contributing to the running of the organisation.
Skills and Experience:	Musician, sound engineer, locksmith
Conflicts of Interest:	None
Other Memberships:	None
Nominee:	SEAMANU, Sam
Nominated by:	self

Interest in CSSI:	As a teacher, I love to help and observe young people find their creative voice. The Stomach provided a platform for me to go through that same process in my youth.
Skills and Experience:	In 2017, I was an executive member of Massey University Students' Association. As part of my role, I was also on the Massey University Academic Board.
Conflicts of Interest:	None
Other Memberships:	None
Nominee:	SLIMMIN, Graeme
Nominated by:	self
Interest in CSSI:	Long-time user and supporter. Past secretary and temporary manager, and current ManCom member and Health and Safety rep, and long-time volunteer. Passionate about what CSSI does and its place in the community.
Skills and Experience:	Governance experience, active musician, carpenter and joiner, exhibition technician.
Conflicts of Interest:	Nil
Other Memberships:	Staff member at Te Manawa; several musical projects
Nominee:	ZIMMERMAN, HZ
Nominated by:	self
Interest in CSSI:	Regular user and gig attendee of The Stomach for a few years. Passionate about The Stomach and its impact on the community. Previous cleaner and volunteer
Skills and Experience:	Events, videography, radio, governance experience.
Conflicts of Interest:	Currently working at Radio Control.
Other Memberships:	None